

Colonel Hugues de Crevoisier d'Hurbache

Chief of Joint Staff of French Forces in Carib

PERSONAL DATA

Born on September 7th, 1966.

SERVICE: Air force - Force protection.

RANK:

Colonel: 1 august 2014.

CERTIFICATES AND DEGREE:

War College: 2009-2010;

French Air Force Academy: (EMA), entry 1992.

AWARDS:

Knight of the Legion of Honour;

Officer in the National Order of Merit;

Fighter Cross.

Hugues de Crevoisier joined the French Air Force in 1986.

From 1989 to 1992, he was assigned to the AWACS ground support software testing unit.

He joined the French Air Force Military Academy in 1992, Force Protection's ground defence.

Then, he has been successively deputy commander and commanding officer of ground defence coy and nuclear security unit.

He was deployed twice during the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina: Sarajevo (1995) as Forward Air Controller during "Deliberate Force" operation, and in Mostar (2001) as commanding officer of the force protection coy of the NATO airbase "Europe".

He was assigned as instructor at the French Air Force Military Academy from 2001 to 2003

From 2003 to 2006, he has served as Deputy Commander of the Airborne Air Commando No. 20. In 2004, he has been deployed for six months in Afghanistan, Kandahar, as special operations liaison officer between the French Special Forces and the US Ranger's 10th Mountain Division.

From 2009 to 2010 he attended the War College in Paris.

In 2010, he took command of the Air Force CBRN, nuclear security and firefighting training centre.

Back to Paris, he was in charge of airborne operations, Force Protection, homeland operations, urban operations. He was designated custodian of the NATO Personnel Recovery Doctrine and wrote the AJP 3.7 at the Joint Concept and Doctrine Centre from 2013 to 2016,.

In 2016, he moved to Bordeaux as deputy commander of the Air Brigade of the Security and Intervention Forces (Force Protection and Airborne Commandos).

On 2019 July the 26th, he was appointed as chief of joint staff of French Forces in Carib.