

Marie-Hélène JOST CHOLIN is a Jurist and Trainer specialized in International Public Law and Human Rights, International Humanitarian Law/Refugee Law and Criminal Law. Marie-Hélène worked for the National University of Galway, Ireland, the Human Rights Law Network in Delhi India, the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees in Kenya (Kakuma Refugee Camp), World education and the International Rescue Committee (American NGOs) in Thailand on the Thai-Myanmar border, The International Institute of Humanitarian Law of Sanremo in Italy, the French NGO Handicap International in Haiti after the 2010 earthquake, the Belgian State Office of the Commissioner General for Refugees and Stateless Persons and the French Adoption Agency abroad of Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Marie-Hélène joined the French Red Cross PIRAC (Regional Intervention Platform for the Americas and the Caribbean) in August 2020 as Deputy Disaster Manager, contributing to support the DM within emergency response operations and other topics, and in charge of activities and events related to preparedness to emergency response.