

Captain Neville E Wint

Captain Neville E Wint retired from the Trinidad and Tobago Defence Force (Regiment) after serving 22 years and is currently enlisted in the Trinidad and Tobago Defence Force Reserves. Captain Wint has extensive experience in Operation Management, Emergency Operations Centre Management, Disaster Risk Management, Logistic, Damage Assessment, Business Continuity, and Exercise Planning and Evaluation. He is presently employed at CARICOM Implementation Agency for Crime and Security (IMPACS), where he is the Operations

Manager of the Joint Regional Communications Centre (JRCC) with responsibility for the daily administrative and operational functions of the Advance Passenger Information (API) and Advance Customs Information (ACI) Systems.

Prior to taking up duty at the CARICOM IMPACS, Captain Wint held the position of Staff Officer 3 Operations and Training at the Trinidad and Tobago Regiment Headquarters, then positions of Officer in Charge, Operations Manager and Relief Officer at the Office of Disaster Preparedness and Management (ODPM) Trinidad and Tobago. He has extensive experience being deployed and working with various Military Units of the region in natural disaster events in St Vincent, St Lucia, Dominica, Bahamas, Haiti, Grenada, Turks and Cacaos Island as a member of the Caribbean Disaster Management Agency (CDEMA), CARICOM Operational Support Team (COST), Rapid Needs Assessment Team (RNAT).

He holds a master's degree in risk Crisis and Disaster Management from the University of Leicester, professional certifications in Business Continuity from Disaster Recovery Institute International (DRI), and Business Continuity Institute (BCI), diplomas, certifications and training in Maritime Port and Harbour Security Management, Project Management Crime and Intelligence Analysis, and Critical Incident Command. He is a facilitator for USAID Bureau for Humanitarian Assistance in Shelter Management, Emergency Operations Center Management and Damage Assessment and needs Analysis and lectures at the Arthur Lok Jack Graduate School of Business, Trinidad and Tobago in its Enterprise Risk Management Professional Program.

Captain Wint is married and has one son and enjoys hiking, swimming, and running.